Comparing Your Options

The cheapest price isn't always the best.
However, in this case, you are not sacrificing coverage to take the lowest price.

Therefore, Progressive is likely a better deal for you than Allstate.

Before You Decide...

We need you to review some information!

We made some assumptions on your behalf. If we guessed wrong, you may find...

- you've missed out on some discounts
- you don't have all the coverage you need
- your final price could change

Check our assumptions on the next page.
If anything needs to be corrected, let us know.
